This was designed as a scheme for Edexcel Pilot Examination but may be useful for anyone studying Arthur Conan Doyle's The Hound of the Baskervilles. The Hound of the Baskervilles merges two popular genres, the detective story and the Gothic tale. Here curator Greg Buzwell examines the novel's depiction of scientific deduction, eerie landscapes and violent ancestry. The Hound of the Baskervilles is perhaps the most famous Sherlock Holmes story, and it has to do with a ghostly hound that's preying on the residents of Baskerville Hall.
