Robinson Crusoe chapter summary in under five minutes! Robinson Crusoe is Daniel Defoe's classic novel about sailor Robinson Crusoe, who is shipwrecked and alone on a desert island. Robinson's raft was unstable and he almost lost all of his provisions into the water several times, but he was able to guide the raft along the river and find a place to put the raft on the bank and get all of his supplies onto dry land. Chapter 5: Builds a House - The Journal. SEPTEMBER 30, 1659. - I, poor miserable Robinson Crusoe, being shipwrecked during a dreadful storm in the offing, came on shore on this dismal, unfortunate island, which I called "The Island of Despair"; all the rest of the ship's company being drowned, and myself almost dead.
