

Download The Great Gatsby Rising Action

There, the reader begins to experience the action of the story. At this point, there is actually story to be told, not just empty descriptions of people and places. From this point, Nick meets Tom's mistress, then Gatsby, then Nick and Jordan set Gatsby and Daisy up, then the four of them (Gatsby, Nick, Daisy and Tom) go to the city. On the way back, Daisy runs Myrtle over. Conflicts When Tom finds out about this, he tells Myrtle's husband, George, who finds and kills Gatsby, then himself. Man vs. Man (External) On his way back home, Gatsby's car hits and kills Myrtle Wilson. Jay Gatsby vs. His social status "[Gatsby] stretched out his hand Nick lives next door to a mysterious man, Jay Gatsby, who he later learns has been in love with Daisy for years. With Nick's help, Gatsby and Daisy are reunited. With Nick's help, Gatsby and Daisy are reunited. rising action · Gatsby's lavish parties, Gatsby's arrangement of a meeting with Daisy at Nick's. climax · There are two possible climaxes: Gatsby's reunion with Daisy in Chapters 5–6; the confrontation between Gatsby and Tom in the Plaza Hotel in Chapter 7.